Verse 1 (SCOTT)

You're not a girl, you're a town, you're snow on the ground
(G)

You're my first year in school, and ooh

G

You're the words in a song that Shannon Hoon sang to me
G

G

And all around my memory, you dance

Verse 2 (SETH)

You're not a girl, you're a car, you're a red Trans Am

(G)

You're ninety miles an hour, and ooh

G

We never get caught, cause there's no cops around and no roads like this, downtown

D

C

Chorus

C Why'd we have to change? SC0TT C It all seemed so fine-----Fine, we'll go our own ways SETH D C Bm We're both asking why-----Why'd we have to change? SC0TT D C It all seemed so fine-----Fine, we'll go our own ways SETH F Fm C G/B F D Am We're both asking why----?

Verse 3 (SCOTT)

G D C
You're not a girl, you're the night of the homecoming game
(G) D C
You're the voice in my head just begging me to stay
G D Am C
You're the smoke in our lights as we sped away
G D C
to catch the moonlight on the graves

Verse 4 (SETH)
You're not a girl, you're a waltz, you're a canopy bed
You're June to August, and ooh
                         Am
You're the back and forth sway of the hammock all day
When I asked you what did you say?
Chorus
    Why'd we have to change?
